

Diary of a Dog

A young boy with dark hair, wearing a blue button-down shirt, is lying on his stomach on a grassy area with scattered autumn leaves. He is smiling and looking towards the camera. To his left, a small, scruffy dog with white and grey fur is sitting and looking off to the side. The background is a soft-focus green lawn and trees.

Jill McDougall      Russell Millard

Diary of a Dog

written by Jill McDougall photographed by Russell Millard

Friday

Today I was very sad. My owner left me in a strange street and I was lost and alone. Another person locked me up in an animal shelter.

I hope tomorrow will be a better day.

Saturday

Guess what! A boy called Luis came to see me today. He gave me a pat so I licked his hand and wagged my tail.

Luis laughed and said I was the best dog in the world. He put me on a lead and away we went!

Luis's home was full of strange smells but I felt safe in my new bed. It has a soft blanket so I was warm and snug. It was much nicer than sleeping at the animal shelter.

Sunday

Yum! I loved breakfast today. Luis gave me my very own doggie bowl. I did not have to share my food with any other dogs and I gobbled it all up.

Luis showed me a place in the garden where I could go to the toilet. Whew! Just in time. Luis said I was a good girl.

I found some yummy rotten fruit in the garden but Luis wouldn't let me eat it. He gave me a bone instead. Mm! It was very tasty.

