

The book cover features a large, smiling fairy with orange skin, large blue eyes, and red hair, wearing a green dress. She is positioned in the foreground. In the background, there are stylized, dark, swirling tree branches and a large, colorful, striped object resembling a hot air balloon or a large flower. A vertical strip on the left side contains a collage of various cartoon characters, including a blue creature, a unicorn, a green creature, and a small fairy. The title 'A Spot for Everything' is written in large, bold, yellow letters across the middle. The author's name 'Written by Lisa Thompson' and the illustrators' names 'Pictures by Luke Jurevicius, Toby Quarmby and Arthur Moody' are at the bottom.
