Leadership Matters

Think of a leader you know. Maybe it is your teacher or a coach. Maybe it is your mom or dad. Leaders encourage others. They listen. They lead a group toward a goal. When people need help, leaders get the job done.

Being a leader isn't always easy.
Leaders need to have lots of skills.
But being a leader is important.
Leaders make a big difference in people's lives.

Leadership is a superpower. When you're a good leader, you know how to get along with others. You know how to work together as a team. You make sure to listen. You help your group reach its goals.

Leaders are honest. They treat people fairly. They encourage others. It can be fun to get others excited. Leaders might say, “We can do this!” or “Good job, team!”

Sometimes people forget to be good leaders. They forget to listen. They might be bossy and tell people what to do. When things don't go right, they might make excuses. They might blame other people.

Good leaders remember to slow down. They are mindful. They admit when they make mistakes. They know it's okay to ask for help.
