Moving Time!

Hello Journal,

My name is Mason E. Pig and I have big news: Mama has just announced that it is time to move!

What does this mean? It means that me and my two brothers, Hayden and Lincoln, are going to find our own houses!

Mama says we are old enough to start living independently now. The world is a big place, she says, and it's about time we start exploring it on our own.

Mama did give us one warning though. She told us to stay away from the Big Bad Wolves. She actually made us a whole diagram describing the animal food chain. As if we could forget! The Big Bad Wolves are a gang of hungry predators with big appetites. And one of their favorite snacks is Little Piggy Sandwiches! YIKES!

I can tell you one thing, Journal—I don't plan on getting ANYWHERE near a wolf anytime soon!

Journal, there's something else
Mama gave me. It was you! Mama said she wanted me to have you so I could write down all the fun adventures I have on my own now.

I promised Mama I would keep track of all my most exciting moments. And this is one of them.

But if I'm going to start telling you all about my life here, I guess I should catch you up on a few things first.

part 2

Me = Mr. Fix-It

If there's one thing you should know about me, Journal, it's this: I am a do-er. What's a do-er? A do-er is someone who does things.

You see, I'm always taking care of things. I clean the house, I get my homework done, and sometimes I cook dinner for the whole family. (Everyone thinks my macaroni and cheese is the best.)
