Race Day

Adam the cloud woke up early for race day.

Down below, the kids in the race did too.

The kids lined up and started running.

Adam loved watching races.

His cloud friends did too.

First, the wind came.

She howled.

The kids tried to run against the wind.

They were getting tired.

Race Day

Rain, rain, go away.
Can Adam the cloud
save race day?
