A Tangled Tale

By Dona Herweck Rice
Illustrated by Tom Bonson

The animals are having a party!

They want to look their best.

“Just look at me and my wonderful tail,” each animal crows.

The peacock struts to the mirror.

He brags to the others.

“Wow, look at my tail.
It is the best.”

For Review Only

The snake slithers to the mirror.

“Oh, no,” she hisses to the others.

“Just look at my tail!”

A Tangled Tale

The animals are ready for a party and want to look their best. But watch out as they get themselves into a tangled situation!
