Where are the two men?
What are they doing?

A long time ago, in a village far away, lived two friends called Toby and Chris. Toby was a tailor who made beautiful clothes. Chris was a carpenter who made wonderful furniture. Unfortunately, the two friends were both a little lazy. They spent each day lying under the forest trees, gossiping and sleeping.

"Toby? Are you sleeping?" asked Chris.

"I was until you woke me up. What do you want?"

"I'm bored of this village. There is nothing to do here. Let's travel to another one."

"Hmm. That's a great idea! If we travel to another village, we won't be bored."

"Yes! We will meet people and see different places. It will be exciting! Let's go!"

What will the two friends do if they travel?
