

The Lazy Rooster

by Katherine Reilly & Jenny Dooley

Express Publishing

What is the rooster doing?

Long ago on a farm in the countryside, lived a rooster, Randy. He was a lazy rooster who slept all day. Randy didn't wake up with the first rays of the sun. He always slept until noon and this bothered the hens. "Look at him! He's still sleeping," said Helen Hen.

"Wake up, Randy!" shouted Haley Hen.

"Good morning," yawned Randy and stretched his wings.

"Just look at yourself! It's almost noon and you're still in your nest!" said Haley.

"I wish you woke up early like the rest of us," said Helen.

"Why should I wake up early? Just let me sleep," said Randy who snuggled in his nest and shut his eyes.

"All the hens are angry," said Haley.

"I'll call a meeting. We'll decide what to do with Randy," said Helen.

Why are the hens angry?

Go to activities
on page 16

ACTIVITIES

for pages 10-11

13 Listen and say.

14 Listen about Ortis Owl and choose the correct word.

- 1 Ortis Owl is a day / night bird.
- 2 He lives in the trees / a coop. During the day, he plays / sleeps.
- 3 At night, he looks for birds / food.
- 4 He hoots / crows all night.
- 5 When the sun / moon appears, he sleeps in the trees.

15 Use the words from the boxes to complete the sentences.

wing

hoot

owl

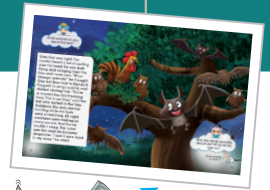

surprised

crow

- 1 The owl is a night bird.
- 2 I'm ..... to see you here. Weren't you in London?
- 3 Roosters put their head in their ..... to sleep.
- 4 Owls ..... at night when they wake up.
- 5 Roosters ..... in the morning when the sun comes up.

ACTIVITIES

for pages 12-13

16 Listen and say.

rustle

bat

hang from a tree

screeching

circle

desperate

17 Who says these sentences? Read the story of pages 12-13 again and choose.

- |                                    |                                          |           |
|------------------------------------|------------------------------------------|-----------|
| 1 "What strange animals!"          | <input checked="" type="radio"/> a Randy | b Ortis   |
| 2 "You don't belong here."         | a Randy                                  | b the bat |
| 3 "Hoot! Hoot!"                    | a the bat                                | b Ortis   |
| 4 "This is our tree."              | a the bat                                | b Ortis   |
| 5 "I wish I were back in my coop." | a Ortis                                  | b Randy   |

18 Randy can't sleep. Write what he wishes.

- "It isn't quiet." I wish it was quiet.
- "The bats are screeching."
I wish they .....
- "The night creatures make many sounds."
I wish they .....
- "I'm not back in the coop."
I wish I .....

WORD LIST

|                |                  |                     |
|----------------|------------------|---------------------|
| bat            | hang from a tree | screech             |
| bleat          | hen              | sharp horns         |
| bother         | hoot             | snuggle in the nest |
| charge towards | lake             | stare at            |
| circle         | land             | stomp hooves        |
| complain       | lazy             | stretch wings       |
| coop           | lungs            | sun comes up        |
| crow           | night bird       | surprised           |
| desperate      | owl              | take a nap          |
| disappointed   | pleased          | throw pebbles at    |
| farm           | proud            | warmth              |
| fence          | punish           | welcome back        |
| flap wings     | rays of sun      | wild animals        |
| fly away       | roam             | wonder              |
| freeze         | rock             | yawn                |
| go away        | rooster          |                     |
| goat           | rustle           |                     |

KEY STRUCTURES in this story:

- wishes (Past Simple)
- farm animals
- words related to day / night animals

The Lazy Rooster

by Katherine Reilly & Jenny Dooley

Randy is a young rooster that likes to sleep all day. He never wakes up in the morning to crow. What will happen when the hens in his coop become angry with him? Will Randy change his ways or will they chase him away?

Express
DigiBooks

Express Publishing

ISBN 978-1-3992-1118-5

9 781399 211185