Make Every Minute Count

If you have a total of 45 minutes to eat lunch and play, and it takes you 20 minutes to eat, how much time is left to play?

45 – 20 = 25 minutes

Lunchbox or Lunch Line?

For Review Only

Will you have pizza or a peanut butter and jelly sandwich? A burrito (buh-REE-toh) or ham and cheese?

Some kids bring lunch from home. Some get their lunch in the school cafeteria (kaf-i-TEER-ee-uh).

Any Way You Cut It!

Do you like your sandwich cut into halves or quarters? Do you like it cut diagonally into triangles? What other shapes could you make from your sandwich?

1 whole

one-half $\frac{1}{2}$

one-half cut diagonally

one-fourth $\frac{1}{4}$

cut into a heart

What's on the Menu?

Does your school lunch menu look something like this? Which meal is offered the greatest number of times?

The good thing about buying lunch at school is that it will be just the right temperature when you get it. The bad thing is that you might not always like what's on the menu. And you can't get seconds!

Sometimes the lunch lines are long. Take a look at the line in the picture above. If it takes each student two minutes to get through the line, how long will it take for the last student in line to get his or her lunch?

4 students x 2 minutes each = 8 minutes
