

We Support Each Other

by Kimberly Feltes Taylor • illustrated by Pauline Gregory

SET THEME:

I Treat Others Well

Build Social and Emotional Intelligence

To help children support others:

- Discuss why supporting others is important.
- Brainstorm different ways family members, friends, and classmates can support each other.
- Remind them that supporting others involves thinking about other people and recognizing when they might need support.

Everyone is at the community center.

What should we do?

Yes! Play
basketball!

Play
basketball!

The twins can't play basketball.

That's right!

Let's do something that includes them.

Noodles!
Great idea.

Yes! Thank you!

Let's go swimming!

But Peanut and Sunny can't get their casts wet.

Oh, right.

Let's play
volleyball!

You can't do that
with a broken arm.
