Gia enjoys taking care of her plants. This is what she does best. She loves her garden and has lots of new flowers and herbs to plant.

Hi, Blue Jay! Would you like to help me plant my garden today?

I'd love to help!

Blue Jay tossed a large amount of dirt into a pot until it reached the tippy tippy top.

Gia wanted to say that wasn't the way she prepared the soil. But instead, she quickly hid the rest of the pots.

Just then, Rabbit hopped over.

"It's that time of year to make my garden green and beautiful," Gia said.

"Wonderful! I can help!" Rabbit exclaimed, grabbing everything in sight.
