Can We Eat Yet?

My name is Christina. I have a very big family. I have three brothers. My grandmother lives with us, too.

Today is a special day. My aunt and uncle and cousins are coming over to eat. We're going to have a great time!

My brothers Juan and Pedro and I help Mom with lunch.

“Mom, can I make the guacamole?” asks Juan.

“Of course,” answers Mom. “The avocados, the onion, and the cilantro are right here.”

“I want to help,” I say.

“Thanks,” says Juan. “We’re going to make a lot of guacamole!”

First, Pedro chops the onion. Next, I add the avocados. Then we add the cilantro.

“Done!” says Juan.

Mom and Pedro heat up the tortillas.
They also heat up the beans.

“Mom, I’m going to try the tortillas,” says Pedro.

“Go wash your hands first,” answers Mom.

We're all really hungry.

"Mom, is lunch ready?" asks Juan.

"Yes, but first we have to set the table," answers Mom.

We all help set the table.

“Mom, is lunch ready?” Juan asks again.

“Yes, but first we all have to wash our hands,” answers Mom.
