INTRODUCTION

To Buy or Not to Buy?

You can buy lots of things. You can make lots of things, too. When you make things, you can save money. You can also have fun!

Read five opinions. Find out why people think it's better to make things.

Making Gifts

I like to make my own greeting cards.
I try to design each card with a personal touch.

My friends and family like the cards that I make for them. They know that I have taken time to create something special for them.

That is why I think that making cards is better than buying them.

I like to make different kinds of jewelry.
I enjoy making necklaces and bracelets.

I like to give the jewelry as gifts to my friends and family. They can see that I put time and thought into the jewelry I make.

I think making jewelry is better than buying it from a store. It is fun. It can cost less money, too.

I like to make my own picture frames with cardboard and glue. I love to decorate the frames. I use seashells, pebbles, and beads.

My picture frames make great gifts.
People can put their favorite photos
in the frames and hang them up.

I think making picture frames is better than buying them from a store. I can be creative and make people happy, too.
