How to Read This Book with Children

1. Read the title of the book aloud.
Ask: What do you think this book will be about?
2. Talk about the pictures on each page.
3. Ask children to point to one or two words they know.
4. Read the first page to children.
Encourage them to read along.
5. Ask children to read the rest of the book aloud.
6. Support children if they have trouble reading a word by using some of these prompts:
 - Try reading that word again. Do you know something about the word that can help you?
 - Look at the picture. What is happening?
 - What word makes sense here?
7. Reread the book aloud together and talk about it.
8. Build language and comprehension by using the ideas at the back of the book.

Hickory Dickory Dock

Hickory, dickory, dock.

The mouse ran up the clock.

The clock struck one,

The mouse ran down!

Hickory, dickory, dock.

adapted by Jeffrey B. Fuerst
illustrated by Bill Greenhead

“I will go up the clock,”
said Mouse. “Here I go!”

“You can do it!” said the mice.

Mouse ran up the clock.

He ran as fast as he could.

Mouse liked to run.

“Look at me,” said Mouse.

“I am at the top!”
