Phonics

- Words with final consonant clusters (breakfast, brown, corn, fact, fish, long, lunch, round)

Comprehension

- Evaluate author's purpose
- Make connections

1. Read the title of the book aloud.
Ask: What do you think this book will be about?
2. Talk about the pictures on each page.
3. Ask children to point to one or two words they know.
4. Read the first page to children.
Encourage them to read along.
5. Ask children to read the rest of the book aloud.
6. Support children if they have trouble reading a word by using some of these prompts:
 - What can you do to help yourself?
 - Say the word slowly. What sounds can you hear?
 - Look at the picture. What is happening?
 - Does that word sound right? Try reading that word again.
7. Reread the book aloud together and talk about it.
8. Build language and comprehension by using the ideas at the back of the book.

What Do People Eat on Bread? . . . 12

Who Eats Bread?

People all around the world eat bread.
In fact, someone somewhere is eating bread as you read this book!

Some people eat bread for breakfast. People eat bread for lunch and dinner, too! When do you eat bread? What kinds of bread do you like?

What Size and Shape Is Bread?

Some breads are big, but some breads are little. Bread can be long and thin. This long, thin bread is from Europe.

▲ The baguette is from France.

Some breads are flat.
These flat breads are round.
People in many places
eat round, flat breads.

▼ This injera bread
is from Africa.

This round bread has a hole in the middle! Where did people make the first bagel?
No one really knows!

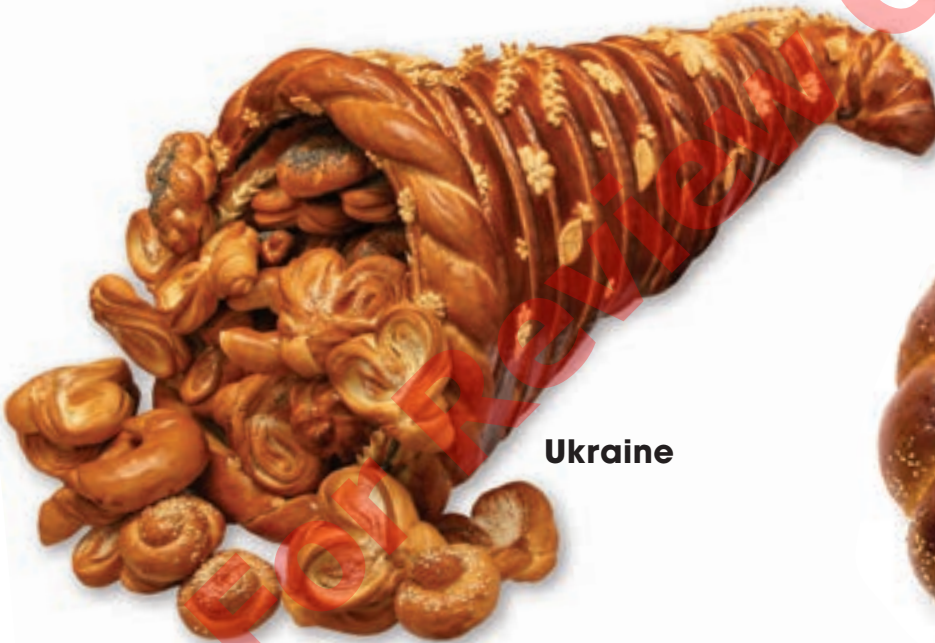

▲ Bagels are shaped like doughnuts.

Breads can be twisted,
like pretzels! People in Germany made the first pretzel.

Germany

Ukraine

Israel

▲ People can make many different shapes out of breads.
