

CELEBRATING DIFFERENCES

DIFFERENT CULTURES

Bullfrog
Books

Table of Contents

Many Ways	4
Your Ways	22
Picture Glossary	23
Index	24
To Learn More	24

Many Ways

We all have different ways.

Alma speaks Spanish
at home. Why?

Her mom is from Mexico.

A photograph of a family celebrating a birthday. In the foreground, a young boy in a patterned shirt and a small hat looks at the camera. Behind him, a woman and a young girl, both in patterned clothing and hats, smile. To the right, an older man in a green and white patterned shirt holds up a wooden cup. In the bottom right, a birthday cake with lit candles (green, black, and red) is visible. A large red watermark "teacher's inspection only" is diagonally across the image.

kufi

It is Kwanzaa.

Marc wears a kufi.

His family lights candles.

Aki eats sushi.
It is raw fish.

It is part of her culture.

sushi

Your Ways

Think about some of the different practices mentioned in the book. Then look at the pictures and think of your own culture as you answer the questions.

Is there a special dance that is part of your culture?

Is there a special food you eat?

What holidays do you celebrate?

What language does your family speak?

Picture Glossary

Amish

A Christian group whose members live a traditional way of life.

Eid

Short for Eid al-Fitr, the Muslim holiday that ends the fasting period of Ramadan.

culture

The beliefs and practices of a racial, religious, or social group.

Kwanzaa

An African American holiday that begins December 26 and ends January 1.

Diwali

The Hindu festival of lights held in October or November.

powwow

A Native American festival.