Clean Teeth

“My teeth are good, Dad.
I don’t need to go to the dentist,” I say.

“It’s OK to feel nervous, Diego,” Dad says.
“I will be with you. You can bring Ted, too.”

“My stomach feels funny,” I say.

“Let’s play while we wait,” Dad says.

My name is called.

“It’s your turn,” Dad says.

“Hi, Diego. I’m Toby.

I’m going to clean your teeth,” says a hygienist.

Toby turns a light on.

It is bright.

But it is not scary.

He just needs to see my teeth.
