

Sometimes Cows Wear Polka Dots

A TOLERANCE STORY

by Shoshana Stopek illustrated by Román Díaz

Meet Millie

HOBBIES: bedazzling, making milkshakes, helping friends sparkle

FAVORITE BOOKS: Cow Bling! and We All Have Different Moooooves

FAVORITE FOOD: fresh grass

FUTURE GOALS: to become a fashion designer and to inspire peace for animals around the world

START AN ICE CREAM BUSINESS

GOALS FOR THIS YEAR

KNIT EACH OF MY FRIENDS
A POLKA-DOT SWEATER

HOST A TALENT EXTRAVAGANZA

EXPERIMENT WITH STRIPES

Millie was a VERY unique cow. While the other cows had the usual spots, Millie wore polka dots!

The other cows made milk. Millie made milkshakes.

The other cows meandered and took their time.
Millie SASHAYED and SPRINTED.

Millie didn't mind standing out from the herd. She was PROUD to be herself. But some of the cows felt differently.

