Charlie had long hair.
Sometimes, he had it
in a ponytail...

...a top knot...

...or even bunches.

But he hated having it washed because soap got in his eyes.

He hated having it brushed because it was full of tangles.

“Why don’t you have it trimmed a bit?”
said Mum.
Charlie frowned. “I’m frightened,” he said.
“There’s nothing to be afraid of,” said Mum.

One day, they were walking past a barber's shop.

"Why don't we pop in here?" said Mum.

Charlie could hear scissors snipping.

He shuddered and shook his head.
