Panda-monium!

Daddy Panda yawned. Life at the animal park had got a bit dull. Watching people all day wasn't as fun as it used to be.

He could hear the city beyond the walls of the animal park. It sounded so big and exciting.

That's when Daddy Panda had a bright idea.
"I think it's time we moved," he said.

So Daddy Panda, Mummy Panda and Baby Pansy packed up their things.

They had never left their home before.

They didn't even know how.

The gate was locked, but they found the keys and off they went.

They wandered slowly through the park.

Finally, they made it to the front gates and out into the big city.

"Where are we going?" Baby Pansy asked.

"Wherever we like," said Daddy Panda.

"That's the great thing about the big city!"

They came to a playground.

“Let’s play!” said Baby Pansy. Mummy Panda sat on the see-saw. She sank straight to the floor.

The child on the other end flew into the air.

“That looks fun,” said Baby Pansy. “I want a go!” And she flew into the air too.

Soon, the pandas had the whole place to themselves!
