Suzy the slug had a very big dream.
She wanted to go into space.

“Why do you want to do that, Suzy?”
asked her mum.

“I want to meet an alien,” said Suzy.

“Oh, OK then,” said Mum, mashing up a mushroom. “As long as you’re back for your dinner.”

Suzy went outside to look for things for her trip.

First she found an empty snail shell.

“This can be my space suit!”
said Suzy, squeezing into the shell.

Then Suzy found an acorn case.

“This can be my space helmet!” said Suzy,
jamming it on her head.

Finally she found a pine cone. It was a nice big one.

“This can be my space rocket,” she said.
