Stop Those Socks!

It is a windy day at the zoo.
A strong gust of wind lifts the zookeeper's socks into the air!
Where do they end up?

Bert, the zoo keeper, lived in a little house next to the zoo.

One Saturday, he looked out of his window. The sun was high in the sky and there was a light breeze.

First, he fed the elephant and the monkey.

Then he fed the giraffe and the antelope.

Then he went to get his socks, his pants,
his scarf and his gloves.

He put them in the washing machine.

Round and round went the washing.
