

Let's Make a Book!

You like to read books with fun pictures. How about making one?

This book is your very own. You will color funny pictures and draw your own. You will trace words and write your own.

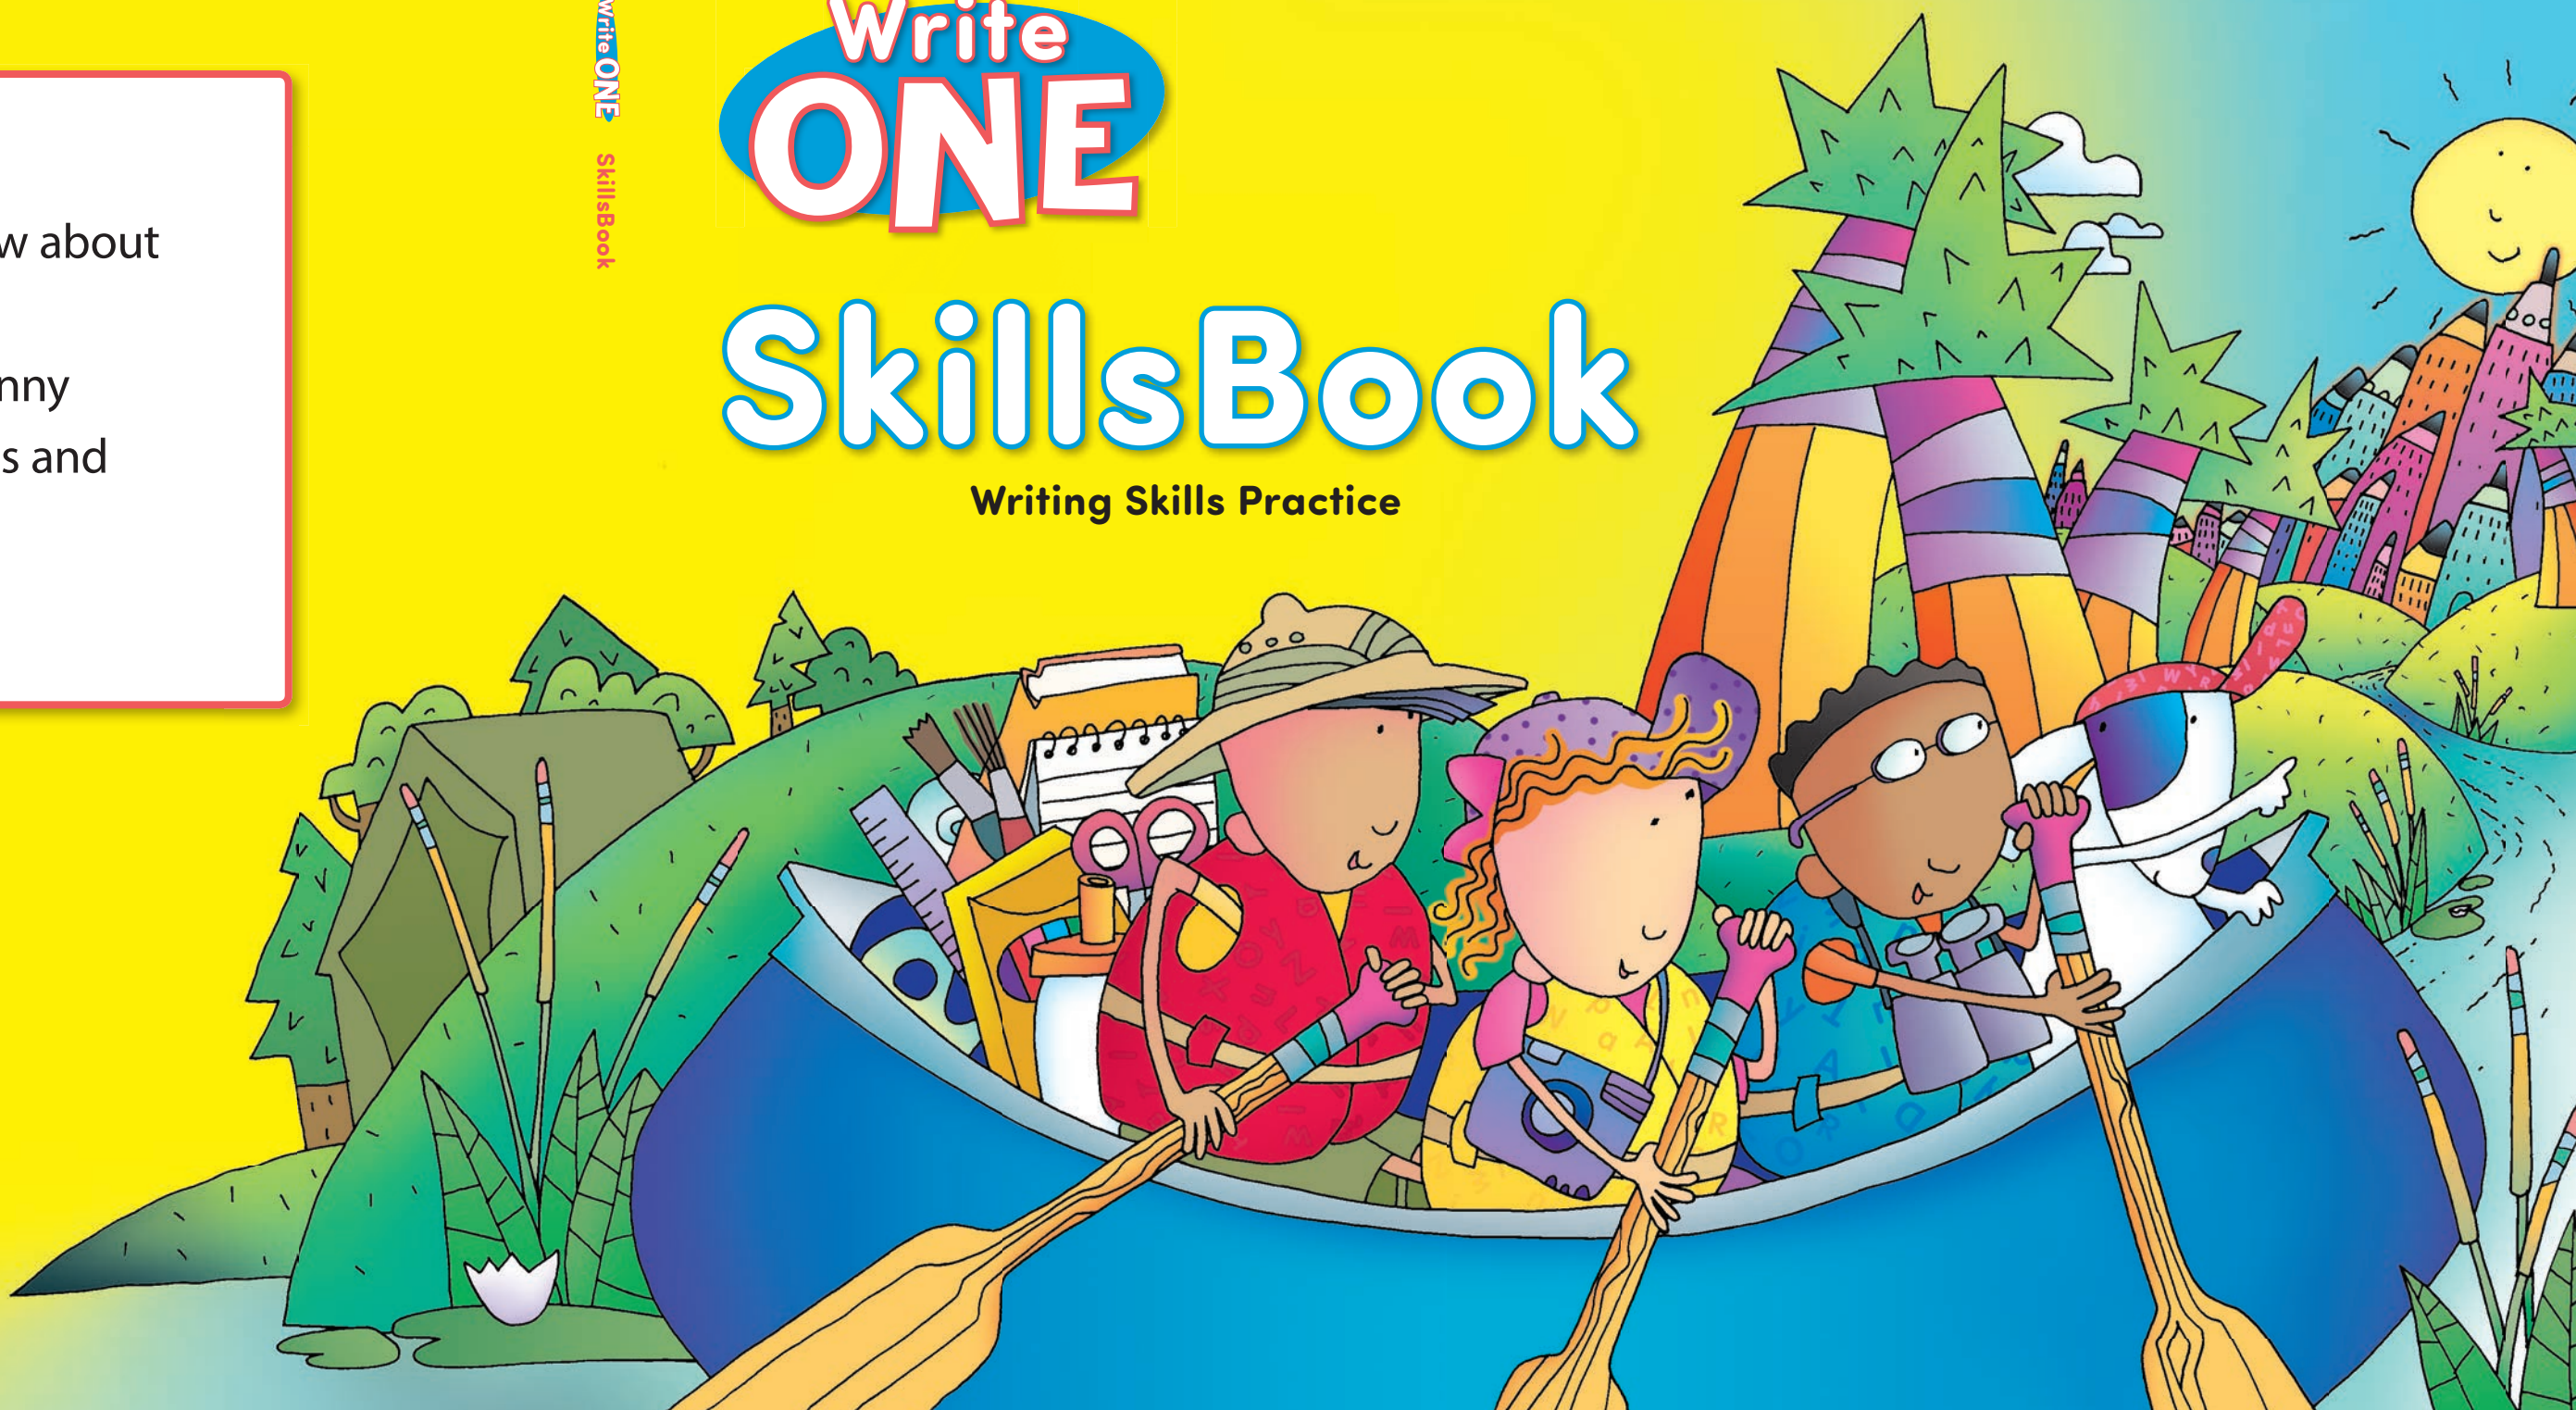

Are you ready? Let's make a book together!

Write ONE SkillsBook

Write ONE

SkillsBook

Writing Skills Practice

ISBN 9781941660287

Thoughtful Learning
k12.thoughtfullearning.com

Guided Writing Skills

Writing Sentences.....	4	Quotation Marks.....	34
Telling Sentences.....	6	Nouns.....	36
Asking Sentences.....	8	Proper Nouns.....	38
Exciting Sentences.....	10	Pronouns.....	40
More Sentences.....	12	More Nouns
Capital Letters.....	14	and Pronouns.....	42
More Capital Letters.....	16	Verbs.....	44
Capital Letters Review.....	18	Adjectives.....	46
Plurals.....	20	Nouns, Verbs, and
More Plurals.....	22	Adjectives.....	48
Periods.....	24	ABC Order.....	50
End Punctuation.....	26	Everyday Word Sort.....	52
Commas.....	28	Using the Right Word 1.....	54
Commas in Letters.....	30	Using the Right Word 2.....	56
Apostrophes in Contractions.....	32

Writing Sentences

Follow the three sentence rules.

Jenny likes little cats.

• Capital
Letter

• Space
Between Words

• End Punctuation

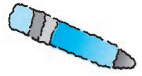

Trace these sentences. See how they follow the sentence rules.

Luke likes dogs.

Rosa likes fish.

Ben likes jokes.

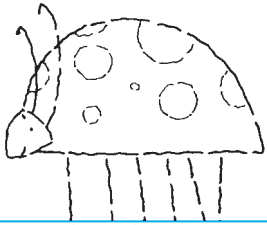

Write three sentences about things you like.

Follow the three sentence rules.

Sample:

I like ladybugs.

1.

I like

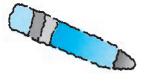

2.

I like

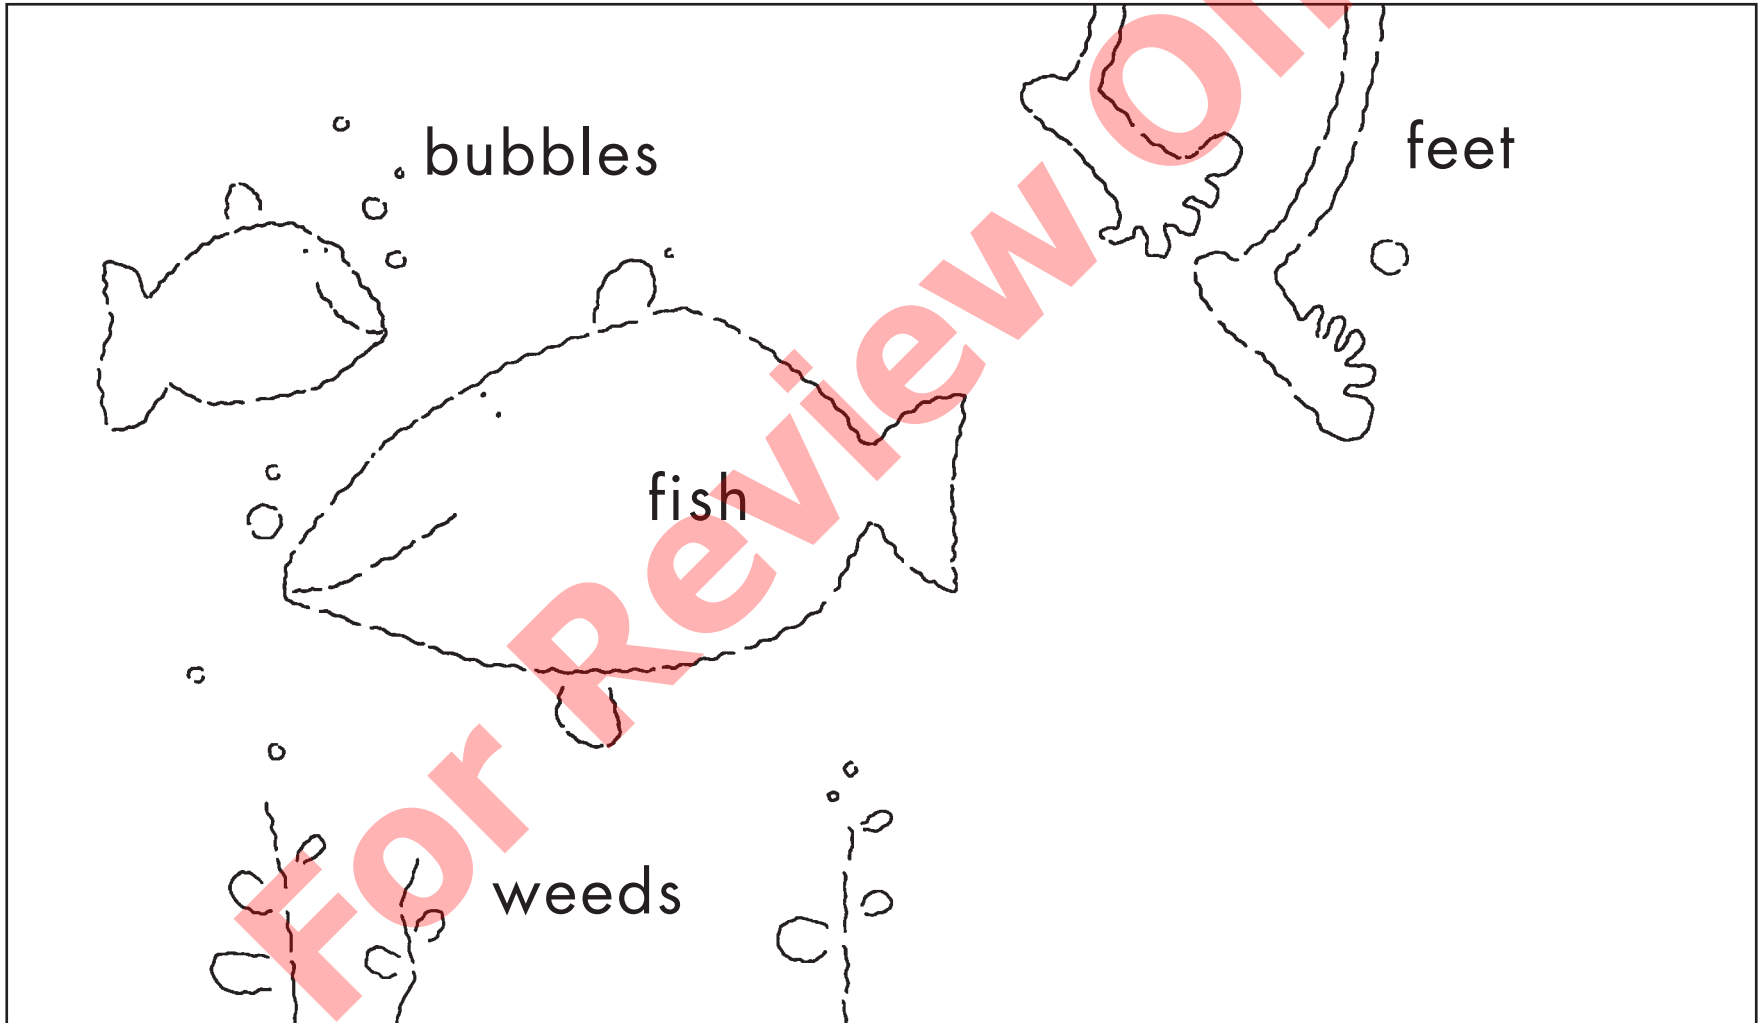

3.

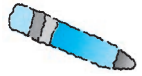

I like

Telling Sentences

Add more pictures and words to this page. Color the pictures.

Write three telling sentences about things you see on page 6.

Sample:

I see fish.

1.

I see

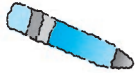

2.

I see

3.

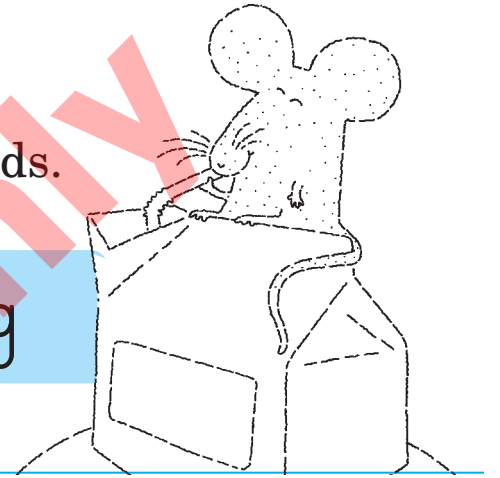

I see

Asking Sentences

Answer each question below with one of these words.

mouse   moon   mother   morning

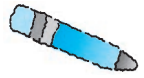

1. Who is drinking milk?

2. What is another word for “mom”?

3. When does the sun come up?

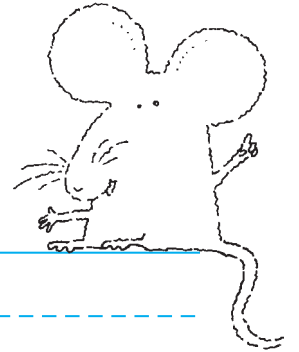

4. Where does light come from at night?

Finish the asking sentences. Use mouse and a question mark **?.

Sample: Where is the mouse?

1. Who saw the

2. What color is the

3. When did you see the

4. Why do we have a