

Jane Cadwallader

Granny Fixit and the Yellow String

Illustrated by Gustavo Mazali

Downloadable
Multimedia
Files

Young  Readers

Jane Cadwallader

Granny Fixit and the Yellow String

Illustrated by Gustavo Mazali

Here is Ann. She's running to school.
Oh dear! Her school bag is open!
Her books and her pencil and ruler are falling out of her bag. Ann is ALWAYS losing her things!

LOST

TEL.
9853492

The teacher is angry. Ann doesn't have her book ... again!

Ann! Where's your book? You are ALWAYS losing your things!

Oops!

Ann is in the park. She's talking to her friend Granny Fixit. Ann is sad because her teacher is angry.

My teacher is angry. I'm ALWAYS losing my things!

Hmm. Is that your book on the floor?

LOST

TEL.

9853942

Granny Fixit puts her hand in her small yellow bag. What's in there?

Oh! It's a piece of yellow string. Granny Fixit puts the yellow string into Ann's school bag! Ann is picking up her book.

Goodbye Ann.

Thank you
Granny Fixit.

LOST

TEL.

985349

Activity Pages

1 Read, match and draw.

Granny Fixit

school bag

lamp

teacher

pencil

watch

dog

book

plant

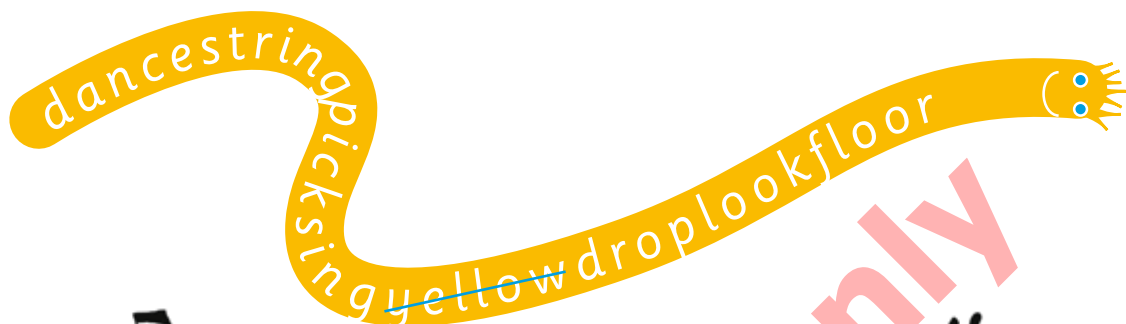

Ann

The page contains the following items for matching and drawing:

- Illustration of a man in a suit and glasses.
- Illustration of a red school bag.
- Illustration of a desk lamp with a white shade and a yellow base.
- Illustration of an elderly woman with grey hair and glasses.
- Illustration of a girl with pigtails and blue bows.
- Illustration of a brown and white dog.
- Five empty circles for drawing.

A blue arrow points from the label 'Granny Fixit' to the illustration of the elderly woman.

2 Find the words. Fill the gaps in the song.

I'm a yellow piece of _____.
I do much more than _____ and _____.
When you _____ things on the _____.
I _____ them up and _____ for more!

3 Match the sentence halves.

- 1 Ann _____ picks up ALL the things!
- 2 Fido _____ helps Ann.
- 3 The yellow string _____ is ALWAYS losing her things!
- 4 Granny Fixit _____ is the teacher's dog.
- 5 The teacher says BE QUIET PLEASE!