

Jane Cadwallader

Stage 4 A2

Harry and the Sports Competition

Illustrated by
Gustavo Mazali

Downloadable
Multimedia
Files

Young Readers

Original

YOUNG  READERS

Jane Cadwallader

Harry and the Sports Competition

Illustrated by Gustavo Mazali

Harry and Emma are police officers. One afternoon they were both in their office. They were working ... or at least Emma was working! She asked Harry, 'Have you ever heard of Jeweller Jane?' 'Hmmmm ...' Harry answered sleepily. 'It says here that robbers have taken the microfilm plans for the new R22 rocket. She is one of the suspects,' said Emma. 'Ahhhh ...' said Harry sleepily.

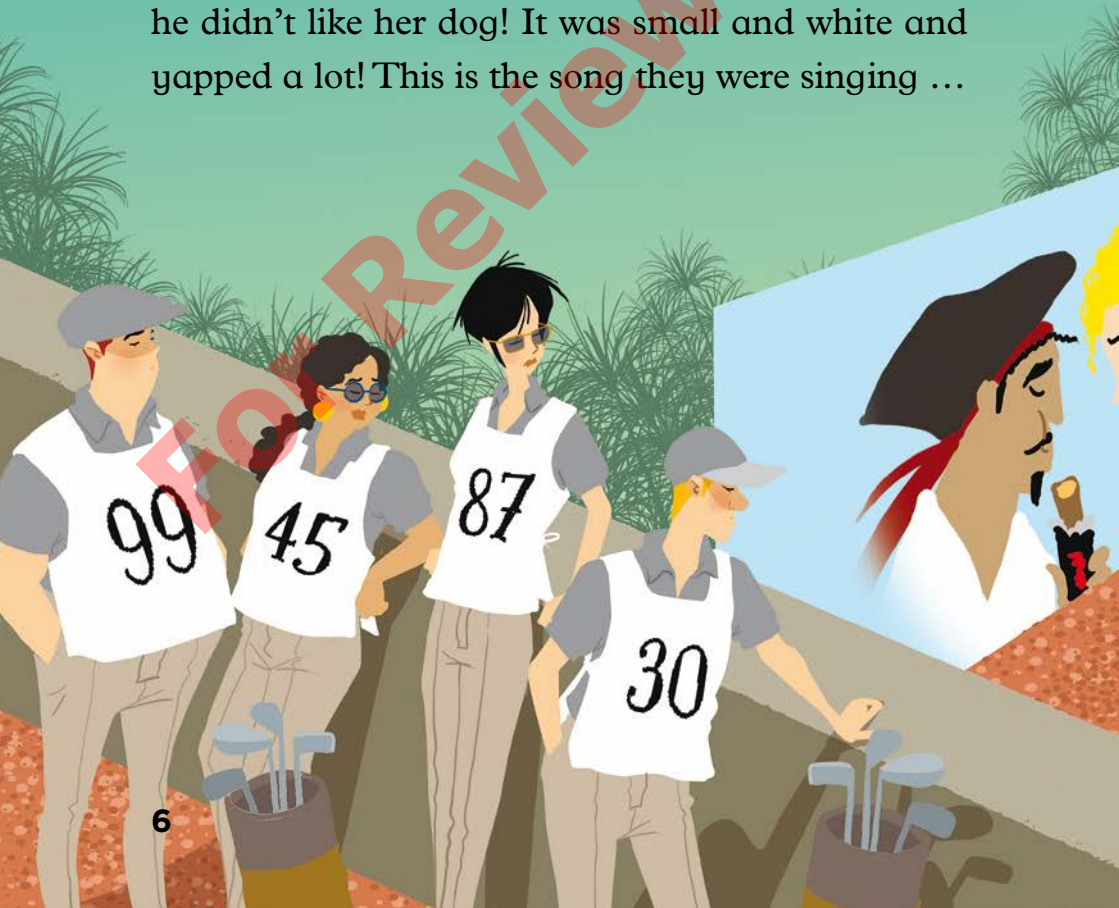

The Chief came in with Betty behind him. They were both wearing sports clothes, blue and white striped shorts and white T-shirts. 'Good news! Good news!' said Betty. 'We have been chosen to go to the Police Sports Competition this weekend. Golf, swimming, tennis! Hurrah!' Harry sat up in horror. His legs felt weak. 'But I'm not good at sport!' 'Come on Harry!' said the Chief, 'A holiday will be good for you!'

When the police bus arrived at the hotel it was already dark. Harry looked out of the window unhappily. The Chief was already off the bus. He was carrying his bag into the hotel and calling to the other police officers, 'Hurry up! We're here!'

The next morning Harry and his friends were waiting for the golf competition when they saw some people making a film. It was an advert for coconut and mango chocolate bars called 'Pirate Joe's'. There was an actor dressed as a pirate with a silver belt and yellow tights. He was wearing a gold earring. The actress was dressed as a queen in a silver coloured dress, long gloves and a necklace with a huge red ruby. She had long curly blonde hair. Harry thought she was very beautiful but he didn't like her dog! It was small and white and yapped a lot! This is the song they were singing ...

3 When you are feeling very tired
And your eyes begin to close,

Put your hand in your pocket
And pull out a Pirate Joe's.

When you're feeling a bit bored
Well, now you know how it goes,

Put your hand in your pocket
And pull out a Pirate Joe's.

Pirate Joe's, Pirate Joe's
They taste just like the sun,

Pirate Joe's, Pirate Joe's
Come on! Let's try one!

Pirate Joe's, Pirate Joe's
They taste like the sun,
Pirate Joe's, Pirate Joe's
Come on! Let's try one!

Activity Pages

1 Number the sentences in order.

- ☐ a Harry said the actress wasn't wearing the ruby necklace.
- ☒ 1 b Harry went to the Police Sports Competition.
- ☐ c Harry fell over the dog.
- ☐ d Harry and his friends saw the actor and actress on the beach.
- ☐ e The actress's hair fell off and her bag fell open!
- ☐ f At the hotel there was an actor and an actress with a ruby necklace.
- ☐ g Inside the bag was the ruby with the microfilm in it.

2 Write the names of the people and match them to what they say in the story.

Have you ever heard of Jeweller Jane?

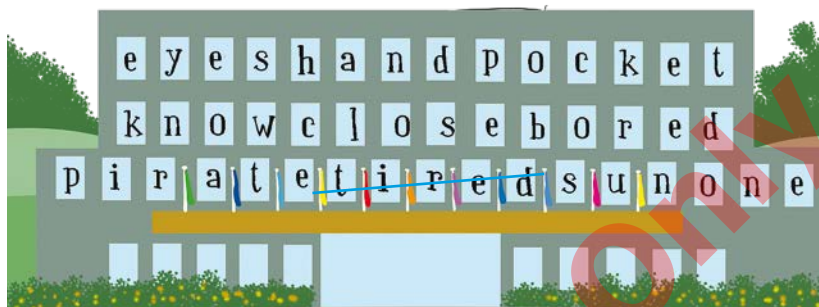

Well done Harry!

But I'm not good at sports!

- 3 Help Harry to find the words in the picture and fill the gaps in the song. You need to use some words more than once.

When you're feeling very tired
And your _____ begin to _____
Put your _____ in your _____
And pull out a _____ Joe's.
_____ Joe's, _____ Joe's
They taste just like the _____!
Pirate Joe's, _____ Joe's
Come on and try _____!
When you're feeling a bit _____
Well, now you _____ how it goes.
Put your _____ in your _____
And pull out a _____ Joe's.