Remembering Grandma

“Grandma’s funeral is about to start,” Mom says.

I am scared.

My stomach hurts.

“I do not want Grandma to be gone,”
I say.

“I know, Felix. It has been hard since she died,” Mom says.

“But we have memories of her,”
Mom says.

I miss her.

My throat feels tight.

I cry.

“It is OK to be sad,” Mom says.
“It helps to think of Grandma.
What do you remember about her?”

“She liked to bake.
We made cookies,”
I say.
