A Big Change

We are moving to a new house today.

My chest is tight.

I feel like crying.

“I do not want to go,” I say.

“I know, Mel. I am sad, too,”
Dad says. “But I am excited for our new house. Remember the backyard?”

“It was nice and big,” I say.

I help Dad pack.

I am bringing my favorite things.

I feel a little better.
