This is Anna. She's only eight.
She's in her garden, playing by the gate.
Her dad's there, too, watering the plants,
but Anna's very busy looking at the ants.

Animals!

Animals help us every day.
You'll see we need them in lots of ways.
Animals help us every day.
We need them in lots of ways.

Dogs can help people who cannot see
and make good pets
for you and me.

Camels take people
across the land,
with little water,
through the dry sand.

Dolphins save people
from the deep sea.
Swimmers, sailors—
don't you agree?

Animals help us every day.
So, we need them in lots of ways.
Animals help us every day.
They're our friends in lots of ways.

Storytime Readers is a series of storybooks especially designed to provide easy and enjoyable reading practice. They have been carefully graded into three stages and have been written in a way that will help teachers to use them as plays, thus providing an early introduction to drama as a means of learning.

Storytime Readers tell tales of friendship, trust, family loyalty, kindness and love using colourful illustrations, dramatised audio recordings and engaging animations to stimulate the imagination of the pupils and encourage them to explore the wonderful world of the English language through literature, poetry and drama.
