- Part 6

In a faraway kingdom, there is a king and queen. They have no children and they are very sad. One day, the queen is near the pond and cries. A frog jumps out.

A queen with long blonde hair, wearing a purple dress and a golden crown, is sitting on a white stone bench by a pond. She has her hands clasped near her face, crying. A green frog is on the grassy bank near the water. In the background, there is a blue castle on a hill, some trees, and a large orange tree on the right. A large, semi-transparent watermark 'viewm...' is diagonally across the image.

Oh, dear me, I want a child!

Don't cry, queen.
You are going to have a baby girl this year.

The frog is right. That year, a baby girl is born.
The king and queen are very happy.

Let's have a big feast.

Yes, let's celebrate!

The feast is wonderful. Twelve good fairies come to the palace.
They all have a special gift for the baby princess.

I give her beauty.

I give her health.

I give her wisdom.

Suddenly Bella, the bad fairy comes in.
She is very angry because they did not invite her.

A curse on the princess! At fifteen, she is going to prick her finger on a spindle and die!
