

STORYLANDS

READERS' THEATRE 1

Fantastic
Forest

A Place for Everyone

Written by Lisa Thompson
Pictures by Luke Jurevicius
and Arthur Moody

Multi-levelled scripts that build fluency and comprehension

INTRODUCTION

Binks has set the dinner table for herself and her friend Gog, the giant. Why does Gog keep setting more places?

SETTING

Inside Binks and Gog's house. There is a large table and three chairs. The table is set with two place settings of placemats, cutlery and glasses.

For Teachers' Inspection ONLY

CHARACTERS

Narrator

Level 5

Gog

Level 5

Binks

Level 4

Big Eyes

Level 2

Dash

Level 2

Tufty

Level 2

Hector

Level 2

Fanghorn

Level 2

Boo

Level 1

Nuggle

Level 1

Narrator: It is dinnertime. Binks, the house elf, has set the table for herself and Gog, the giant. But Gog has added another chair.

Binks: Why is there another chair at the table, Gog? There are only the two of us.

Gog: Well, I thought we should set another place. Maybe our friend Big Eyes, the owl, will drop by.

Binks: Have you invited Big Eyes to dinner?

Gog: No, but she could surprise us with a visit.

