Chicken Licken's on the farm; he's eating crumbs of bread.
An acorn falls down from a tree and hits him on the head!
"Deary me, what can it be? Oh, what an awful thing!
I think the sky is falling down! I'm going to tell the King!"

check the Facts!

People say a lot of things,
and some of them are true.
But if you don't believe them all,
this is what to do:

Chorus: Check the facts!
Get things straight!
Check the facts!
IN-VES-TI-GATE!

There are stories on the news,
and some of them are true.
But before you spread the word,
this is what to do:

Repeat chorus

E Look and write.

Storytime Readers is a series of storybooks especially designed to provide easy and enjoyable reading practice. They have been carefully graded into three stages and have been written in a way that will help teachers to use them as plays, thus providing an early introduction to drama as a means of learning.

Storytime Readers tell tales of friendship, trust, family loyalty, kindness and love using colourful illustrations, dramatised audio recordings and engaging animations to stimulate the imagination of the pupils and encourage them to explore the wonderful world of the English language through literature, poetry and drama.
